Introduction

Councils have certain functions and duties that they must perform, and certain powers which they may exercise pursuant to the Local Government Act 1995 (the Act) and other legislation. Generally, the relevant legislation grants those obligations and powers directly on the Council as a body.

Council's power to delegate is provided for in s5.42 and s5.43 of the Act. This section provides that the Council may delegate any of its functions, other than those specified in s5.43 to the Chief Executive Officer (CEO). Council cannot however, delegate directly to another Officer of the City unless the statute allows for that Delegation.

The CEO must be delegated the necessary functions to be able to then sub-delegate those functions to an Officer. This is provided for in s5.44 of the Act, whereby the CEO may delegate any of the functions of the CEO, other than the power of Delegation.

When a decision-making power has been delegated by Council, both Council and the Delegate are authorised to exercise that power.

A register of delegations, being this manual, relevant to the CEO and other employees is to be kept and reviewed at least once every financial year.

Each instrument of delegation describes the function being delegated and the relevant statutory reference which is the source of power for the exercise of the function. Also included is a reference to related documents such as policies of the Council which may provide guidance in the exercise of the delegation.

This delegated authority register will be reviewed in accordance with the Act on an annual basis.
