

Public Question Time at Agenda Forums

Factsheet 22 – February 2017

What is public question time at an Agenda Forum?

Public question time is your opportunity to ask questions relating to matters listed on the Agenda.

How long is allowed for public question time?

A maximum of 15 minutes is allowed for all questions during public question time. The extension of public question time beyond this time is at the discretion of the Presiding Member. The Presiding Member can close public question time before the allotted 15 minutes if there are insufficient questions to occupy public question time.

How do I submit my question?

If you would like to ask a question at the Agenda Forum, we ask that you register and submit your questions in writing by 5pm on the Monday immediately prior to the Agenda Forum.

If you have a complex question we suggest that you submit your questions to the Shire's Executive Support Officer as early as possible. This allows us to conduct any research required to give you an informative and considered answer to your question and means you are more likely to get an answer on the night, rather than your question(s) needing to be 'taken on notice'.

What happens at the Agenda Forum?

During the Agenda Forum members of the public will be called forward to ask their questions. When the Presiding Member invites you to ask your question(s), you should walk to the lectern, state your full name and suburb of residence and then proceed to ask your question(s) – one at a time.

The Presiding Member may limit the number of questions each person may ask if there are a large number of people wishing to ask questions. This is to ensure an equal and fair opportunity is provided to all persons wishing to ask a question. If you ask a question that the Presiding Member believes has been previously responded to, you will be advised accordingly.

Questions may be answered at the Forum by the Presiding Member, Chief Executive Officer or another Councillor or Shire staff member. If necessary, the questions may be taken on notice.

Please note that no debate or discussion about the question or answer will take place at the meeting.

What happens if my question cannot be answered at the Forum?

If your question cannot be answered at the Forum and an answer requires further research it will be 'taken on notice'. A written response will be provided to you, where an address has been provided.
